Luis Toledo Presented the Harry Kempf Business Award

Luis Toledo, President of Midwest Moving & Storage, was presented the Harry Kempf Business Award by the Ed Kelly Sports Program at the 40th Annual Giants Award Dinner and fundraiser held June 30, 2014 at The White Eagle Banquet Hall in Niles.

For the past forty years, the Ed Kelly Sports Program has honored individuals who have made significant professional and personal contributions to their respective communities. The program was established in 1974 to provide more recreational opportunities to youngsters throughout Chicago. continued ...

Employee Spotlight

Dave Vegas

At age 15, Dave Vegas was spending his summers moving furniture with his Dad. At age 24, he "moved into the office" and has held positions including operations manager, claims manager, and international coordinator. After 25 years, he has touched almost every job in the industry.

Dave is Midwest's new warehouse manager, using his considerable industry experience to further computerize the warehouse and to use valuable floor space more efficiently.

"I'm working on finding a new home for items housed in a prime location that are not being accessed," he explained.

Dave also mentioned a large project. "Currently, the warehouse is receiving and storing furniture for a new hotel in continued ...

Since its inception, the program has expanded to include senior citizens, young adults and pre-school children and has helped more than a quarter of a million people.

Jose Caez, Business Agent for IBEW Local 1031, nominated Luis Toledo for the award. He explained, "Luis Toledo has proven to be a great businessman. He grew Midwest Moving & Storage into one of the premier commercial and household movers in the nation. Luis Toledo hired employees that have advanced into good working union jobs. He has promoted G.O.T.V. (Get Out The Vote) campaigns, educating employees on their right to vote and to have a say in the community."

Other honorees during the evening's festivities were Chicago Blackhawks Coach Joel Quenneville, Notre Dame men's basketball coach Mike Brey, Illinois State Senator John Cullerton, Eli's Cheesecake owner Marc Schulman, Tom Fitzgibbon Sr. of Twentieth Century Services, Inc. and Dominic DiFrisco of Edelman.

Luis Toledo said, "The Ed Kelly Sports Program has done much to help the community and I am honored to accept the Harry Kempf Business Award. I thank Jose Caez for nominating me."
